1) Approval of minutes from board meeting 3 May 2022

Minutes approved.

2) Venue and date of the One Day Conference

It was decided that the One Day Conference will be held at the Oslo Metropolitan University on Friday, 25 November 2022.

3) Discussion on the One Day Conference

One of the suggestions for the approach of the One Day Conference is to set hub at places in the world which enable us to have bigger audiences for this conference.

The open discussion for the topic of the One Day Conference including the climate change and health consequences, migration and global health, maternal and child health, occupational health, food security, addressing the mismatch of funding opportunities and increasing needs in global health research, and interrelationship between priority setting and climate change.

4) Any other business

The annual PhD conference of Norwegian Research School of Global Health will take place at Oscarsborg 8 - 10 June 2022
